Southern Memories

1983

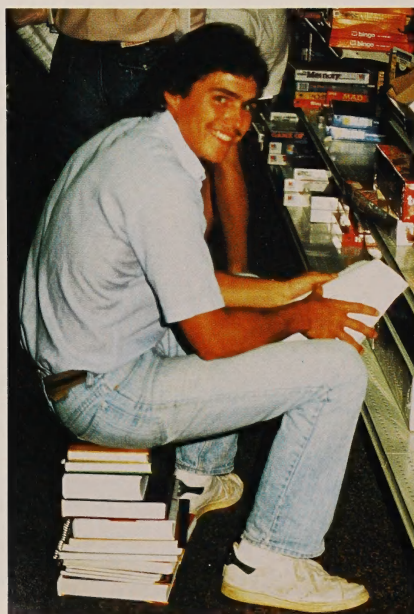

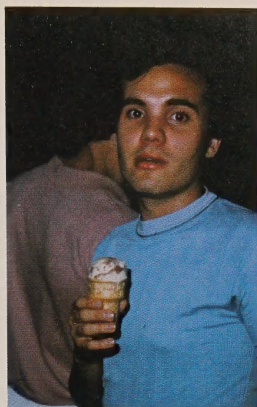

Sharon Blackburn

I don't need a rebel flag because I'm prouder of this other old Red, White, and Blue

I love the Southern sunshine

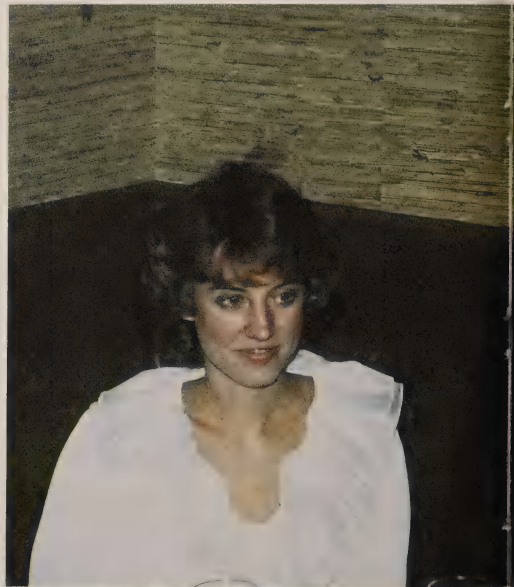

But sometimes this Southern rain can get me down.

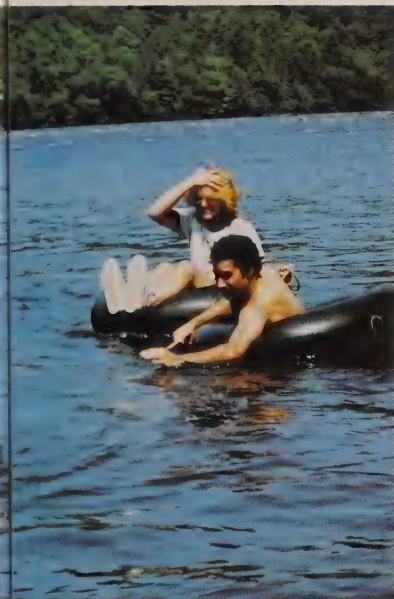

*Pecan pie is still delicious,
But I'm getting tired of cornbread.
(And I've learned that Okra can be Cooked at least a dozen different ways)*

*Weeping willows, giant magnolias, graceful palms, Spanish moss
And ivy . . .
But so far I haven't seen a single field of cotton.*

I've seen a riverboat . . .

I've seen plantation houses

And high-bred horses.

I've seen hoop-skirted Southern Belles.

*Sometimes this life seems too slow.
My impatience wants to speed up that Southern drawl.
But I'm getting used to life with Southern style.
And I love to say "ya'll".*

A Cover Of Memories

"The Southland." When Southern Junior College's first annual came out in 1923, the Southland staff printed an explanation of the purpose of the book.

"The purpose of The Southland is to represent Collegedale to the students, both present and prospective, and to the friends and patrons of this institution . . ."

In 1938, when Southern Junior College changed the name of its yearbook to "The Triangle", an introduction explained why . . .

" . . . The triangle is the most stable of all forms. The circle is easily dented, the square can be crushed . . . but the triangle can withstand great strain. Southern Junior College stands for a triangular education . . . the physical, mental, and spiritual phases of life . . . a three-fold preparation . . ."

1944 changed Southern Junior College to Southern Missionary College, and "The Triangle" became "Southern Memories", a name which according to the 1945 yearbook staff . . . "so aptly meets the ideal of the yearbook of our school in the Southland."

Today, as Southern College S.D.A., we've undergone another change. Our yearbook is still Southern Memories, a book that remembers the past and looks forward to the future.

Dear Dr. Knittel,

*For the years of service
you have dedicated to us . . .*

For the times that you have listened to our point of view . . .

For explaining things that you did not have to explain . . .

For chapels that inspired us . . .

for the sense of humor that made us smile . . .

For being yourself . . .

. . . and trying to let us do the same . . .

We thank you . . .

. . . and we wish you the best.

*With Love and Respect,
The Student Body
of Southern College*

Now here's another thing . . .
I love these Southern seasons,
Especially Southern springs.

Remember the January "blizzard"?
The one that closed every school,
church,
restaurant,
office,
shop . . .

"A bad winter," they said.
(There must have been at least 3 inches of snow!)

February brought Valentines day
And a special "Sweetheart's" night.
The Read House Silver Ballroom,
Filled with southern belles, and gents,
Could have been a set from
"Gone With The Wind."

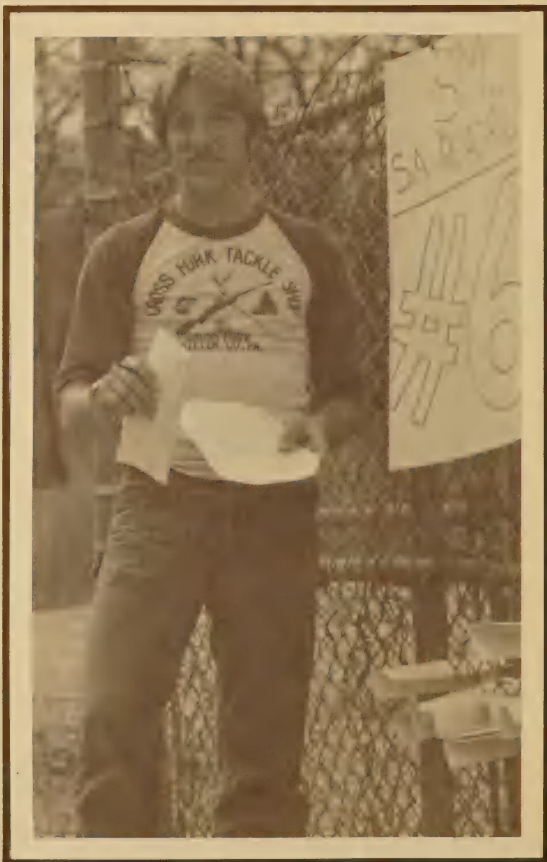

February's Black History Week
Became People History Week.
"We're all people. All alike. All together."

Southern springs are like that . . .
Southern springs are special!

A black and white photograph showing a man in a white shirt standing outdoors, gesturing towards a large, dark, rectangular board. The board has a list of names and numbers written on it. Several people are seated in the foreground, looking towards the man and the board. The background shows some trees and a fence.

I remember being a junior ...
 ... old enough to know what I was doing,
 But not too old
 To care
 Too much ...

I remember being a sophomore ...
 ... looking for familiar faces
 During that first week of school.
 I remember
 Being remembered
 By someone special!

I could never forget being a freshman.
 ... those twinges of homesickness ...
 ... those endless study halls ...
 ... the years still ahead of me ...

Dedication

Edgar O. Grundset

We dedicate the 1982-83' yearbook to a man who through his untiring energies has brought knowledge and happiness to those who have had the opportunity to know him.

Just how he keeps up we can only guess, so we're including a three minute portion of this day;

"... RING!

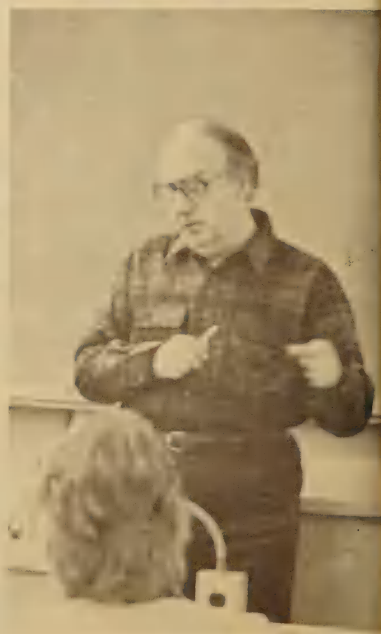

"Hello? Yes, we will need the van for Sunday. Thank you. No, we will not include chapter six on the Embryology exam. Mr. Grundset, I would ...

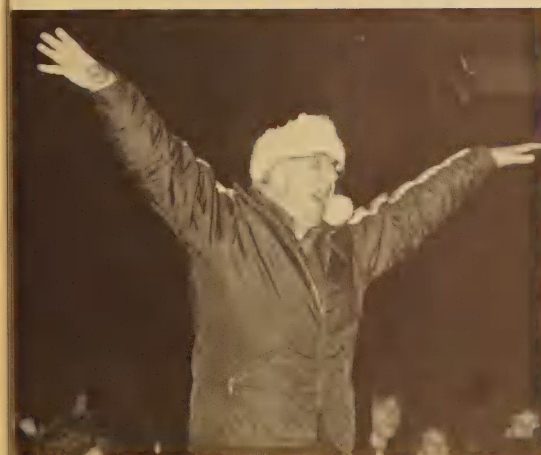

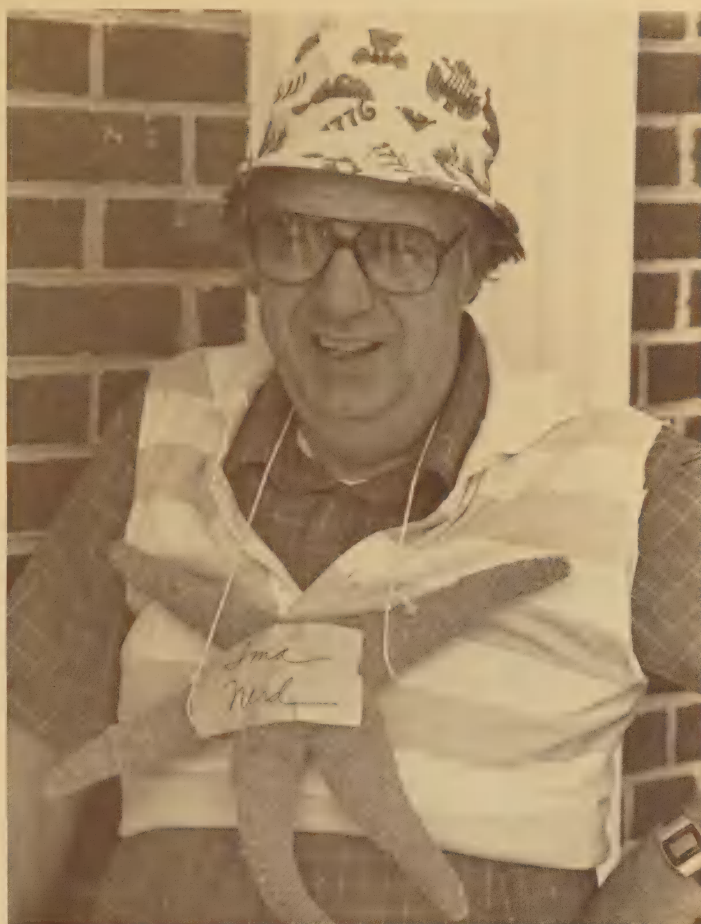

"... RING!

"... Hello! ... a division meeting? Oh my ... you'll have to see me this afternoon ..."

Even though he is one of the busiest people I've ever seen, he is still one in a million and we appreciate you Mr. Grundset for making our school a nicer place to be!

P.S. HAPPY BIRDING!

All In A Day's Work

The quiet moments — to pause — to reflect — to renew your commitment to caring.

Smyrna Hospital invites you to be a part of our caring team. You'll enjoy working for a facility where the emphasis is on people — our patients and our employees.

We're ideally located only 20 minutes from downtown Atlanta. The hospital offers a full range of health care services and new technology, combined with a commitment to quality that can't be beat!

Moberly Regional Medical Center

Surprised that a $14 million, 120-bed hospital of this stature would be located in a rural area like Moberly, Missouri? Most people don't expect small towns to offer much in health care services. Not so in Moberly, where we have a medical center many cities twice our size would envy. MRMC offers a full range of medical and surgical services, including the most up to date technology. But we haven't lost our small-town flavor. Here, we care - - and our patients know it.

"The Caring Hospital"

*Serving Southwest Florida From Punta Gorda
Since 1947*

Begin your health-care career in the ideal location. A 156-bed Seventh-day Adventist hospital located on Florida's Southwest Gulf Coast 20 miles north of Fort Myers and 150 miles from Orlando.

Enjoy a culturally-oriented community in one of Florida's most picturesque areas. Medical Center Hospital offers nursing opportunities in ICU, surgical, medical oncology, pediatrics, emergency services and cardiac rehabilitation.

BACK TO BASICS

Real happiness is found only in being good and doing good. The purest, highest enjoyment comes to those who faithfully fulfill their appointed duties. No honest work is degrading. It is ignoble sloth which leads human beings to look down on the simple, everyday duties of life.

Gail Nusbaum, R.N., graduate, Southern Missionary College

Pacesetter.

Life and death decisions are a way of life for Gail Nusbaum.

Her talents in emergency care, as nursing director of Trauma and Emergency at FH, makes her special. She's a professional with a history of experience to back her decisive leadership. And she draws from that experience while directing the 73 nurses who work in Florida Hospital's three emergency departments — and who cared for nearly 83,000 patients last year.

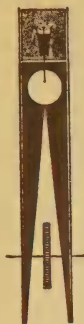

Setting her apart from others in her field is her ambition that Florida Hospital's emergency services be a representative part of our Christian institution.

Gail helps set the pace and keeps in step with it.

Learn more about your future with Florida Hospital by contacting Personnel: 601 E. Rollins, Orlando, Florida 32803. Or call toll free 800/327-1914. In Florida, call 305/897-1999 collect.
